There are definitely days (or nights) when it is better to stay in. You don't want to go out, you don't want to spend unnecessary money, and you don't want to work anymore than you have to. It's nice to take a day to yourself and just chill out and hang out. No worries, no stress, just you and your "you" time.

So, you get the lemonade, put on your sandals, and head outside, when BAM! There's the neighbors. You can see everything they are doing, and they can see everything you are doing. Suddenly, the thought of going out isn't so bad. You'd have the same amount of privacy either way.

There has to be something you can do. Something to get rid of the sight of other houses and the people that live in them. Something that can give you a little... privacy.

That is where this book comes in. In it you are going to discover many different patterns you can follow to make your own privacy screens. Inexpensive, stylish, and just what you need to take your backyard spotlight out of the limelight and give you the privacy you deserve.

You will be surprised at how easy it is to make your own privacy screens, and you are going to fall in love with the amount of seclusion they give you. No more stress, no more being under the watchful eye of your neighbors, just privacy. Pure and simple.

- Use the patterns to fit your décor and your favorite look
- Get creative and upcycle and recycle to your heart's content
- Make as many or as few as you would like
- Make as big or as small as you would like
- Rest easy knowing you are finally getting the privacy you deserve
- And more!
