When Gabriel Rhodes hires her to reproduce a fifteenth-century painting of the archangel Michael, the last thing Mackenzie Jensen expects is to fall in love with him. Haunted by a tragic past and the memory of her former boyfriend, Mackenzie finds herself at the mercy of her own mind, her repressed grief and ingrained insecurities threatening the happiness she's found in his arms. Will Mackenzie find the strength to face her past? Or will she let her nightmares take over her waking world and lose the love of her life? "Of Angels" takes a look at life, love and how tragedy can affect a person's view of themselves and their worth. An extremely sexy yet vulnerable story that will make you laugh, make you cry, and maybe – just maybe – make you believe in angels.
