Faraones perdidos y encontrados (Spanish Edition) Benjamín Collado Hinarejos

Si algo ha estimulado la imaginación de los amantes del mundo antiguo en general y del Egipto faraónico en particular, han sido las tumbas y los tesoros legados por unos reyes que murieron hace miles de años, pero que dejaron tras de sí unos monumentos que han perpetuado sus nombres en la historia de la humanidad y que siguen impresionándonos hoy tanto como el día en que fueron construidos. Aunque curiosamente no ha sido en el interior de estos imponentes monumentos donde se han localizados los cuerpos de los faraones que hicieron posibles las extraordinarias construcciones egipcias, sino escondidos en modestas tumbas y sucias cuevas, en las que consiguieron esquivar a los ladrones a lo largo de los siglos. En este libro haremos un repaso a estos descubrimientos que un día asombraron e hicieron soñar al mundo, aunque también es cierto que no todos tuvieron la misma repercusión mediática. Hablaremos, por supuesto, del hallazgo más conocido, el de la tumba de Tutankamon, pero también de otros que no lo son tanto, como las tumbas reales de Tanis, donde se encontraron no una, sino tres sepulturas reales intactas, sin olvidarnos del primer gran hallazgo, el descubrimiento, en las entrañas de las montañas de Deir el Bahari, de un escondrijo con docenas de momias, entre las que se encontraban las de algunos de los más poderosos faraones de la historia de Egipto. Espero que lo disfrutéis. IMPORTANTE: Este libro incluye mis e-books: "El escondite de las momias reales" y "La tumba de Tutankamon y la maldición de las momias", ya publicados, más una tercera parte inédita dedicada a las tumbas reales de Tanis.
