This book entitled THE FUGITIVE : The vantage is the first book of the series The fugitive. It is merely about Kabali to find the truth about the drug organization.

Kabali a happy go lucky free living young man with little care in the world works as a bar tender in his Uncle Teal's bar. Little does he realize that his uncle has deep rooted connections with a drug organization. His uncle uses him and the bar for his drug trafficking. Kabali is least bit interested in what his uncle does. There were men who dropped and collected packages at random and Kabali was in the least bit bothered about the coming and going of the packages.

Unfortunately for Kabali due to some wrong information received by the organization bosses that the young man was an informer a contract to bum him off was put on him. The contract killers of the organization move in on the kill and is about to carry out their dirty job. But their attempt is thwarted by the presence of a friendly patrolman. Ever since then Kabali has been on the run to save his life and in an attempt to clear himself of the misunderstanding he tries to meet the big boss who put the contract on him. Kabali is able to reach the big boss but to find him dead, stabbed. Now it was a case of Kabali falling from the frying pan to the fire. Will he survive to live another day? Your guess is as good as mine.
