What secrets are you willing to uncover for the love of your life? Vance Hudson is a successful African-American man with the nation's leading construction and developing company. Partnered with his best friend who has recently gotten married and expecting his first child, Vance reflects on life as they begin to work for an interior decorator that has made a name for herself in the fashion world. After wondering about the love he let go of twelve years before, Vance walks the greatest creation he'd ever seen. Kasey Tellis has been through hell and back. Now, she's desperate to regain the woman she lost at the hands of an abusive husband. After an incident that left her deaf, a college friend murdered, and her husband left for dead, Kasey plans to move on with her life and try love again with the one person she can't seem to forget. Slowly but Surely is an amazing story of second chances, steamy sex, jaw-dropping intimacy and a never ending fight for what you want. Vance and Kasey learn to trust in their love even if old wounds have yet to heal. Sensual and thought provoking this love ode takes you on a journey as Vance and Kasey uncover things that can threaten to tear their entire world apart.
