From the Extreme (Urban Christian) Renea Collins

Throughout Rachael's life she was faced with various trials such as rape, molestation, physical and mental abuse. From the Extreme takes you into a life of a woman full of anger, pain and betrayal. She is forced to deal with the issue of abandonment from her mother and never discovering who her father really was. But this voice enables God to step in and be her Father. This new found love Rachel finds in the Lord keeps a light burning in her soul, making her determined that there is something greater for her life; a destiny waiting to unfold. From the Extreme will show the reader that you can forgive, be delivered and healed of whatever circumstances encountered in life. It takes the reader from a little girl's childhood to the woman of God she becomes through two failed marriages; one with a superstar athlete, the other with a superstar cocaine dealer, four abortions, one attempted suicide, plenty of drug using and selling, to one attempted murder, Rachael's life will show how she and others in this story came from the extreme, to God's glory.
