What must life be like signing your life away for twenty years? Find out in this tale of high seas shenanigans, not so much fun in desert climes, and getting yelled at a lot for things that really don't make all that much sense. This is my life in the United States Navy. For the past two decades, I have dedicated my life to protecting my country from all enemies, foreign and domestic from the fields of war to a comfy office chair. This is my story, this is my life.
