Teach Because I Came! Michele Owes

Teach Because I Came is a spellbinding narrative of a mother's unplanned journey back to high school. As a parent and an eyewitness to current day education, she concedes that everything she knew about high school was completely outdated. The author reveals shocking statistics about our children and makes a powerful correlation to America's classrooms. You will be captivated as you read about her personal encounters with students and teachers. Understanding that what she witnessed was greater than a personal experience, she became the conduit for a remarkable national solution to our educational challenges and learns the true meaning of being an involved parent. Every educator, principal, parent, teacher and student should read this book. It will change your mind and your life.
