La Letra Escarlata (Spanish Edition) Nathaniel Hawthorne

La letra Escarlata (The Scarlet Letter) es una novela de Nathaniel Hawthorne publicada en 1850 y considerada su obra cumbre.¹ Está ambientada en la puritana Nueva Inglaterra de principios del siglo XVII, y relata la historia de Hester Prynne, una mujer acusada de adulterio y condenada a llevar en su pecho una letra «A», de adúltera. Hester rechaza revelar la identidad del padre de su hija, y trata de vivir con dignidad en una sociedad injusta e hipócrita. En la novela Hawthorne trata los temas del legalismo, el pecado y la culpa. En junio de 1642, en la ciudad puritana de Boston, una multitud se reúne para presenciar el castigo de Hester Prynne, una joven declarada culpable de adulterio y condenada a llevar una "A" escarlata de adúltera en su vestido para su vergüenza. La sentencia le obliga a permanecer durante tres horas en la picota expuesta a la humillación pública. A pesar de las presiones para que confiese nombre del padre de su hija, Hester se niega. El esposo de Hester, que llevaba tiempo desaparecido en el mar, aparece a tiempo para presenciar el castigo y enterarse del adulterio de su esposa. Encolerizado, se hace pasar por el médico Roger Chillingworth para intentar descubrir al amante de su esposa
