Alex's dream has come true! She's ridden her grades all the way to Princeton with an academic scholarship. Money is tight and the memories of her father's death still bring tears to her eyes, but her new roommate, Ashley, is a breath of life to Alex's soul—she's wealthy, beautiful and fun! Alex misses Mark so much but the more Ashley drags her into the college experience—drinking, partying and guys—the less she thinks of him. It isn't long before Alex is kissing academic probation!

On the road to reform, Alex meets Oscar, a brooding rebel whose dark curls and sexy grin tempt her into a world of explosive attraction that drives them crazy mad with love for each other. Alex learns Oscar's moodiness is guilt over the death of his twin sister and it only tightens their bond. As depression overtakes Oscar, and he does the unthinkable, Alex is forced to choose between Oscar and her future. She doesn't want to leave, but if she stays she'll end up living Oscar's nightmare and her own dreams will turn to dust. She can't let her newfound joy in life slip through her fingers like sand in a slow leaking hourglass...

LETTERS OF LOVE follows Alex to college and the next stage of her poignant journey toward the truest love—loving herself enough to say yes to her own life! Read this riveting story and learn to say yes to you!
