Pup Adventures Around the World: The Secret Journey to Tokyo Tara N. Clarke

This book features the adventures of three lovable pups, Sebastian, Brady, and Hugo, as they explore the great city of Tokyo during the New Year's celebration. Their journey begins by receiving a magical chew toy for Christmas that allows them to explore the world while their parents are away. They go on their explorations but must return in the nick-of-time before their mom and dad return.

In Tokyo, the pups enjoy eating a traditional Japanese meal, they visit a symbolic Japanese temple, and engage in the festive New Year's celebration. Each fun-filled journey is packed with excitement and comedy as the three pups engage with each other, and other people of the world.

Their experience teaches children about Japanese culture, customs, and food, as well as lessons in kindness towards others.

This series explores the world through the eyes of my three pups. They go on adventures in various cities around the world, and explore the customs and cultures of these great places. Along with teaching children about culture, these stories contain lessons in compassion, respect, how to be well-behaved, and minding one's manners. Through exploration of various cities and cultures, this series can help children develop a passion for exploring the world and not just accepting, but embracing the cultures and customs of others. It is through the eyes of these pups, that children can embrace the concept of this series and enjoy it to the fullest!

This is the first book of the series as other volumes are still in production. The following are upcoming books scheduled for release later this year:

Venice, Italy

Paris, France

Acapulco, Mexico

New Orleans, United States

Barcelona, Spain

New York, United States

Giza, Egypt
