Psychologist Dr. Aaron Pierce arrives home from a romantic vacation with his beautiful wife. Within two days, she has left him and returned to Bora-Bora to live with a newly found lover. Still young and unsure where to look for a new life partner, Dr. Pierce turns to online dating. He searches the world, meeting women from Russia to South America. Persevering, he finally finds the love of his life in Mexico. The future looks bright for the two, especially once the doctor receives an unexpected inheritance. But fate intervenes, leading to war between a family and a cartel. The intrigue builds and the intensity moves forward like a fast train. Dr. Pierce ultimately learns who he can trust, and who, most likely, will live or die.
