PURSUED BY EVIL is a 19,000-word Vampire Diaries novella. The events take place at the end of Season 4, right after Stefan overhears Elena professing her love to Damon.

She isn't human...

Stefan Salvatore leaves Mystic Falls, heartbroken that the love of his life has chosen his brother over him. Although a close friend recently reminded him that immortal beings have many loves in their lives, Stefan doubts he'll ever meet anyone like Elena Gilbert again. That is, until a freak accident brings him face-to-face with equestrian trainer Ariana Pallas. She instantly reminds him of the young Elena he fell in love with, with one big exception. Ariana isn't human. She isn't a vampire either. In fact, Stefan has no idea what she is, but he's willing to stick around a small Blue Ridge town to find out.

Meanwhile, Damon Salvatore knows he'd be a fool to think Elena's feelings for Stefan have simply vanished because she chose Damon. The girl is riddled with guilt. He jets her off to Bermuda with the hope of assuaging some of that guilt with a little romance. Instead they encounter an evil so ancient and so elusive it was relegated to legend--an evil somehow connected to Stefan's new girlfriend, and on its way to Mystic Falls.

With time running out and options limited, the brothers must put aside their differences and team up to save the people they love from one vengeful hellion bent on punishing them for a centuries-old betrayal.
