The Big Three-Oh

Bored stupid by her predictable life, April decides to throw herself a fabulous party for her thirtieth birthday. Even if the night is as dull as she expects it to be, the bar will be stocked with her favorite bottles of wine.

What she doesn't expect is the present that her best friend, Dina, brings along – her little brother, Brett. Only Brett isn't so little anymore. Throw in a silk tie and an empty coatroom, and April discovers that her life might not be that boring, after all.

Then, the heat wave rolled into town, and it brought out the crazy in everybody – including sensible, smart Sophie.

When the lights go out, Sophie breaks all her rules and leaps over to the dark side. The last person she expects to find is her college crush, Reid – and he doesn't seem too inclined to kick her out.

This was the place where I usually tripped up or froze completely, but I was determined not to do so this time. I was bound and determined to take it farther, to go that one step more that would assure the experience of wild, uninhibited stranger on stranger that I had craved for so long. PLUS MORE
