Organizing Successful Tournaments-2nd Edition John Byl

Organizing Successful Tournaments makes the planning process quick and error-free by giving you everything you need to stage the most competitive match-up possible. By examining the advantages of each of the five major types of tournaments, this book helps you decide which type best suits your needs: single elimination, double elimination, multilevel, round robin, or extended. You'll find 39 draw sheets, playing schedules for varying numbers of entries and playing areas, and seeding charts including byes. Just photocopy a draw sheet, plug in the participants' names, and you're ready to play! You'll also learn how to handle large numbers of entries, break ties in games and tournaments, and much more to make sure your event goes off without a hitch.
