Rose and Beth have been friends since childhood. They have shared many experiences together. Their friendship has even stood the test of them attending separate universities; but now it must survive the biggest test of all.

Rose had never thought of Beth's dad in any other light than as "Beth's dad", until one evening after he was kind enough to help her mom out with some electrical issues they were having... A simple power failure leaves them creating their own entertainment. One thing quickly leads to another. The morning after brings a whole new dimension to the relationship between them all. Now Rose has to decide if what she thought happened, did actually happen. More importantly, if it did, what should she do about it...Where will the relationship go, and what should be the next step? Will they take it a step too far?
