The Loudest Silence: A Gemini's Heart Song Natasha Guy

The people you love the most can be the ones who leave the deepest scars. When you are a two-sided coin with no middle, your life is composed of extremes. Living every day like it is simultaneously the first and the last can lead to severe highs and lows. When one experiences everything at max capacity, the resulting roller coaster ride can be overwhelming. In this instance, it birthed a collection of words that initially fell upon deaf ears. Sometimes more than proclamations are needed to promote understanding and complete the communication process. The hills and valleys of the journey are waiting to be heard.
