"Whether you are "up to" the sudden and permanent ripping away of someone you love does not matter. When what's done is done, the only choice left to you is to breathe before you pass out, then breathe again. Get on a plane, land in Tucson, order flowers, make arrangements. Fly home. Act normal. You are a psychologist. You cannot do anything else. You cannot undo dead."

...or can you? Dr. Jessica LeFave, reeling from the suicide of her stepdaughter, dives into a search for her best friend's killer, a quest that lands her in face-offs with the posh horseshow crowd in Texas and the merciless crime bosses supplying little girls for prostitution on the dark side of Mexico City. To save her own life she must rely on what she knows about mental disorders and how far some will go to make money.
