Who Is The Mystery Match Maker In This Town?

Junior Parker is charming, good looking, wealthy and muscular. But most of all, Junior Parker is lonely. That's almost a given, living your life out on the range, driving cattle and working from sun up to sun down. Sure, he's in his 40's and has never married, but it isn't because he hasn't had many admirers. He is, justifiably so, nervous to marry one of the women that live around his home in Atoka, TX.

You see, Junior isn't your average cowboy. The brand that he rides for is his own, and the cattle that he drives are as well. Junior is the preeminent rancher in Coleman County, Texas, is devilishly handsome (despite his age) and is filthy rich, to boot. He doesn't want to marry a local woman, because he's afraid that she will love his money, not him.

Ruth Stafford, too, is lonely. The youngest of twelve children, she is the only one who is not married, but not many men are interested in the poor daughter of a sharecropper. So, instead of waiting any longer, the beautiful young woman answers an ad for a mail order bride.

So Ruth boards a train, and heads west, bound for Coleman. But when she arrives, she is in for the surprise of a lifetime. The man she is going to meet never actually sent for her!

Who placed the add for the mail order bride?

Who is the mystery match maker of the town? Will the two overcome their initial misgivings and find romance, despite the whispers in the town?

This first book of the "Mystery Match Maker" series will introduce you to Coleman County, Texas, and be the first in a series of books surrounding the mystery matchmaker. Inside, you will find characters who are rich in detail, full of virtue, and steamy in the bedroom.
