Say Yes to the Covenant Bethany Tolley

Most young people see their wedding day as a far off event. It is a day they know will come, but they figure that the time to worry about it is not right now. Why worry about getting married when you are too young to even date seriously and there are still missions to be served and college degrees to attain? Seriously pondering and preparing for eternal covenant keeping long before you meet Mr. or Mrs. Right is the best thing you can do to begin preparing for an eternal marriage. And this book is intended to help you accomplish this—in detail! Think of it, in a world that's literally tearing marriages and families apart more rapidly than ever, you never have to worry about what or whom you're saying yes to. All you have to do is focus on is saying yes to The Covenant.
