All Souls (The Thunder & Shield Travelling Carnival Book 2) Samuel Brower

The Thunder & Shield Travelling Carnival is set up in New Orleans, Louisiana in October of 1956, with the hopes of bringing a little merriment to the storied city. Soon, the three men who make up the carnival's "charity division" are approached by a group of young folk who say their friend has been murdered and the police are ignoring the crime. The charity division; a fire-slinging magician, a gun-wielding strongman, and a mysterious, tattooed gypsy, along with their new ward, a young blind girl with burgeoning powers all her own, agree to investigate. They quickly find that there is more to the case than they could ever have imagined. A local voodoo queen offers her assistance and with this new and strange ally they are thrown into battle against two formidable enemies. It becomes apparent that if the charity division fails to stop the evil that is taking place in New Orleans, the young men who came to them for help will surely perish, and possibly many, many more.
