How to Paint Your Boat: Painting, Varnishing and Antifouling Nigel Clegg

Here finally is a practical book for all those boat owners who find themselves with paintbrush in hand at least once during the season. With the vast range of products now available, how do you know which one to select for the job, or what the correct thickness should be, or how long you should wait before applying coats? This book answers all the do-it-yourself boat owner's questions, explaining correct surface preparation, dealing with defects, correct application methods, and gives advice on storage times and estimating quantities.
