Cancellation & Nonrenewal clearly outlines how insurers can legally terminate insurance policies in all 50 states and the District of Columbia, delivering completely current guidance on cancellation of both standard property and casualty insurance policies. State-by-state differences are examined in detail on a line-of-business basis.

The new 2012 edition contains many vital updates and additions, including:

- Under cancellation: important changes to the definition of insurance fraud and reporting provisions
- Updates on fair claims process information, including reporting provisions and penalties for delay in payment of claims
- Rules for notification of excluded named drivers required at the renewal of auto policies
- And more!
