The Bitch Wall Dennis Lane

In the late 60s Dennis Lane went to Vietnam as a grunt soldier. There he met a bunch of buddies and while bullets and mortars raged around them, they painted a wall, and it became The Bitch Wall. If you had a bitch, put it on the wall. And by the end of Dennis' 14-month tour the Bitch Wall had become a metaphor for the war itself. This book is the story of that wall and the men who painted it and died so that the story could be told.
