In the game "Simon Says," everyone tries to become Simon, the leader. But in real life, leading others is much more complex--it's part preparation, part perspiration, and part inspiration. John Stanko outlines how to develop a leadership philosophy that includes all three.

He shows you how to define your values, purpose, and goals. he gives you practical steps to help you better manage yourself and your time. And he paints vivid pictures of the price of leadership with three great biblical examples--Moses, David, and Daniel/

By combining the latest in leadership techniques with a solid biblical foundation, Dr. Stanko delivers cutting-edge tools for leaders who want to build upon their natural abilities and learn how to serve and influence others for the glory of God.
