The Little Einsteins Sound Book: We've Got a Mission is an interactive musical adventure. Children can join Annie, Quincy, Leo, and June as they follow clues to return a purple iris to Monet's garden in Giverny, France. This Little Einsteins sound book cleverly incorporates a lesson in art and music into an interactive adventure that children will love. Children ages 3 to 5 will enjoy pushing buttons to animate the story with classical music by Pyotr Tchaikovsky along with other charming sounds. The book also features art by Impressionist painter Claude Monet.

Illustrated icons on every page match seven big, bright buttons on the panel at the side of the book. As readers and pre-readers follow the story, they will have fun finding the matching buttons and pressing them to hear parts of Pyotr Tchaikovsky's "Waltz of the Flowers" and fun Little Einsteins sounds. Seven different sounds include:

- Waltz of the Flowers
- Batons
- Marimbas
- Trumpets

The book's thick cardboard pages stand up to repeated use. The Little Einsteins Sound Book: We've Got a Mission conforms to the Specifications for Toy Safety of ASTM F963-03. The book has been safety tested for children 18 months and older. Three replaceable long-life AG-13 button cell batteries that power the book are included.
