What is an Angel of Death supposed to do when a demon holds the key to her whole existence?

Time is running out for Poison. The Archangel Michael has ordered her to retrieve an evil board and the woman who is it's victim. It's a test—and if she fails she will be kicked off the squad and be shooting arrows with Cupid.

But she has a problem—Ringmaster. The demon got there first and possesses the board and the woman. He's offered Poison a sinful proposal: Sleep with him and he'll hand over the board and the woman. Or she can go back to Michael empty handed.

Ringmaster has had a hunger for his little angel ever since he first saw her. She changed him from being hell's favorite trickster to a love sick hell hound. He has to know if what he feels is for real. One hour is all he asks. How can his sweet angel say no?
