Abram returned from his rumspringa glad to be home, but weeks later, when a young lady knocks on the door of his parents' home, he has some explaining to do. The young lady, Ida, brings with her proof of a marriage to Abram, and has another surprise entirely. Abram has no choice but to accept this woman as his wife, especially as she agrees to join his Amish community. Abram is resentful that he's forced to live a life that he never planned for. Weeks later, devastated by Abram's coldness toward her, Ida sees the only thing to do is to leave Abram and the community. When Abram arrives home to find his wife and unborn child have vanished, he is forced to face his circumstances. What he decides to do will affect the lives of many people.
