Artstrands: A Program of Individualized Art Instruction Guy Hubbard, Enid Zimmerman

This award-winning, innovative program of 100 appealing lessons adapts a workable, appealing and easy-to-follow approach that can be used for multi-level instructional needs. The lessons are formed around 28 flexible instructional sequences called strands in which participants can select lessons from the range of choices at each of four steps of individual strands. Coverage includes drawing, painting, collage, print-making, mosaic, textile design, modeling, carving, constructed sculpture, ceramics, casting, art history, and art criticism. Profusely illustrated.
