Autumn is good at one thing: leaving ...until she meets the one man who wants her to stick around.

When Galveston bounty hunter Nate Donahue is hired to find Skye “Autumn” Hudson, it’s just another job. Until this shop girl, who lives on the other side of his duplex, challenges his commitment to keep things strictly professional. A challenge he has to overcome. After all, he’s being paid to spy on her—not care about her. No matter how tempted he may be.

Skye has secrets of her own. She’s always left any relationship before it could go anywhere. She’s certainly never trusted someone the way she trusts Nate. He’s so kind, so helpful. Can it be possible? Has the girl who always runs finally found a safe place to stay?
