Why Should Guys Wait Until Marriage For Sex? Everybody knows that pre-marital sex runs the risk of STDs and pregnancy. But is that the only reason to wait until marriage? Aren't there any positive benefits gained from waiting? There are numerous benefits and they have not been given adequate attention. Summarized simply, waiting until marriage for sex makes you more of a man. Guys want to have sex, and lots of it, but even more central to their identity is their masculinity. The prevailing idea in our culture is that the more sex you have the more of a man you are. This book has the audacity to claim the opposite: Waiting until marriage makes you a bigger man. Lamborghinis Don't Need Test-Driving is the most creative book written for guys with the most innovative approach on the subject to date because it focuses on gaining positive benefits rather than avoiding negative consequences, it relies on logic and common sense rather than scare tactics, and it treats young guys as men rather than wayward youth. You already know that sex is awesome, but what if you found something even more incredible and more rewarding? What if waiting until marriage actually boosts your masculinity? You may find yourself coming to this shocking conclusion that waiting until marriage is the manliest use of your sexuality. If you want to challenge your preconceptions of sex and masculinity in the hopes of finding something greater than you dreamed possible, then buckle up, sit back, and enjoy the ride.
