Johanna's love for her horses leads her down a path of nearly sacrificing love for practicality -- but when a mystery man shows up in her life with a baby, she loses all her wits

The only excitement Johanna Holmes found was in her afternoon rides with her beloved horse. She wanted nothing more than to find her own parcel of land with which she could keep her own horses, and she prayed that day would come.

Her mother, unfortunately had other plans for Johanna, nudging her towards accepting the courtship an older, wealthy man. Johanna has no mind towards marriage but she realizes she also doesn't have the financial means to care for her horses alone...

When a mysterious stranger arrives at Neiman's Hollow, he catches the attention of everyone...almost everyone...Johanna has no interest in the arrogant Reese Louden and his mysterious past; a past that includes a baby..

But could he hold the key to her future, and perhaps even her heart?
