These books about a tight-knit bear family are wholesome, friendly choices for beginning readers. Wholesome and cheerful, the Berenstain Bears have been delighting readers since 1962. Whether this good-hearted family is at home in their cozy tree house or venturing off into the community, they manage everyday challenges and milestones-like manners, chores, and doctor visits-sensibly and with touches of humor. These relatable characters make it easy for kids to understand and appreciate the central lesson in every story. And every story has a lesson-from overcoming sibling rivalry to the problems with watching too much TV-which makes this series a great teaching tool.
