Windows and Doors of the Camino de Santiago: A Collection of Photographs from the 775-Kilometer Camino Francés Pilgrimage across Northern Spain - including a few from the Camino Finisterre to Muxía Debby Lee Jagerman-Dungan

Debby Lee Jagerman-Dungan is an avid traveler and loves walking in the places she visits. Thus it is fitting that she made a personal pilgrimage on two Camino de Santiago routes in Spain, the 775-kilometer Camino Francés across northern Spain, and the 28.5-kilometer Camino Finisterre to Muxía along the Atlantic Coast. Debby's favorite subject to photograph when she travels is windows and doors. This book is a collection of a variety of 285 windows and doors photographs, in 102 unnumbered pages, of her Camino journeys. Some pictures include symbols that anyone who has walked the Camino would be able to relate to - scallop shells, yellow arrows, stone markers, even encouraging words of wisdom. Whether you have walked any Camino de Santiago pilgrimage route, or are preparing to make the journey, or have an interest in the Camino, Spain, or windows and doors, may "Windows and Doors of the Camino de Santiago" bring back enchanting memories, or inspire you. Buen Camino! Ultra et suseia!
