Hannah is running from a violent ex. She has moved from city to city yet still he seems to be following her. A security company is her last resort and when her appointment is cancelled by her advisor she believes all hope is lost. That is until she finds herself face to face with a man she never thought she would see again. He has made a new life for himself on the back of his old army past but could she possibly be a part of it? After ten years everything has changed and Hannah must decide whether she can forgive the man who broke her heart and allow him to heal the wounds caused by the terror of her past. Can she finally escape the man who almost cost her her life or will she be forced to return home with him and fall back into their violent relationship?
