Gabe's Haunted Love: Even after death love finds a way Joshua Stephens

A tear jerking gay mystery romance.

Living with his Marine Corp buddies, Gabe questions his sexuality each day and although he has never had relations with a man, his desires for another are very strong and cannot be helped. No one notices Gabe's struggles except for maybe something or someone from the supernatural world as he reawakens a ghost of the past, Brad Colton.

Gabe realizes that something has happened in his room years ago and reawakens a ghost of the past who, sadly his life was cut short when he was murdered. Gabe decides to solve the crime on his own. Gabe finds Brad disturbingly and dangerously attractive and can't help but fall in love. He realizes the people around him hold more secrets than ever and Brad must confront the past to begin a future...

This is the first book of a two part gay paranormal series.
