This story of a unique relationship of 2 inseparable friends is a great for beginning readers.

EXCERPT

“There are many abandoned dogs waiting for a new loving master” my mom says. I have been thinking about it very seriously and now I’m ready to be in charge of taking care of my dog. I know this is an important decision for me, my family and the dog too and I’m aware that our lives will be different from now on. Today is a very special day because my parents are driving me to a dog pound. “There he is!” I exclaim. I am so excited I can’t wait. Right there all alone in the cage, is my new best friend, just waiting for me to come and take him home. My biggest ever wish is finally going to come true.
