An Inspirational Christmas Story Cathal O'Toole

Joshua arrives at Bethlehem with his only friend in the world, Sasha, his dog. He is a fourteen year old orphan, homeless and nearly penniless, having made the two day journey from his childhood hamlet Rimmon where he grew up the only son of a blacksmith. He goes straight to the town's inn, where he and his father used to dine on their annual excursions to Bethlehem. He is hired as a servant to clean out the inn's stable and to fetch water for the inn. After he has cleaned out the filthy stable, he is told that he can make it his home, in exchange for his services to the innkeeper. When weary travelers Mary and Joseph are turned away from the inn because there is no room, Joshua, shyly and proudly offers them "his" humble stable. Blessings and abundance start to flow into Joshua's life over the next few weeks.
