1,000 Points of Light, (While the Public Remains in the Dark) is a detailed analysis of George Bush's association to Oswald's Closest Friend, George De Mohrenschildt. The research will focus on George Bush's involvement with Texas oilman, including H.L. Hunt, John Mecom, George De Mohrenschildt and to the JFK assassination. In 1975, when Bush was nominated as CIA Director, he failed to disclose that he had known de Mohrenschildt since 1942. Three Congressional Committees Rockefeller, Church and HCSA looked into the CIA's role in JFK's assassination. As CIA Director Top Secret documents came up missing under Bush. In 1976 Bush failed to disclose that he had known Oswald's closest friend when the HSCA investigation was to examine the possibility of a conspiracy into JFK's assassination. It will also look at Senator John Tower's ties to Bush, Oswald and de Mohrenschildt. Dimitri Von Mohrenschildt has written to the author that Bush had hired de Mohrenschildt in the 1950s.. Adamson wrote to former President George H.W. Bush in 1993 on de Mohrenschildt and he responded stating that he had known de Mohrenschildt since 1942.

Twenty Years ago Russ Baker was fresh out of high school when Bruce Campbell Adamson first began his work on the 14 volume series Oswald's Closest Friend; The George de Mohrenschildt Story. Adamson published nine volumes in 1996 which Baker purchased in 2007. Baker used Adamson's research in Family Secrets four chapters dealing with CIA agent George de Mohrenschildt.

Baker has worked with one of George de Mohrenschildt's CIA employers at CBS. Baker worked on a piece for CBS 60 Minutes. George de Mohrenschildt worked for William S. Paley who admitted working with the CIA and owned CBS.

Vol. I also included:

Adamson was given in 1992 special access to George de Mohrenschildt's personal papers and telephone book by the West Palm Beach Sheriff's. It is this foundation that created 13 volumes to this series. Clearing the Conscience in Manapalan Beach, is a thorough investigation and description of George De Mohrenschildt's suicide of March 29, 1977. De Mohrenschildt's suicide resulted in the first coroner's inquest in the State of Florida. It includes interviews of Edward Jay Epstein and Willem Oltmans. Epstein was the last person to visit with de Mohrenschildt an hour before he placed a shotgun in his mouth. Epstein's closest friends is the personal adviser to President Bill Clinton, Sidney Blumenthal. The booklet contains several photographs and at least one of De Mohrenschildt's suicide. Now you can support the 1,000 Points of Light Foundation with a clear Conscience since Bill Clinton and Both Bush Jr. and Sr. are apart of the 1,000 Points of Light Foundation. Both Bush and Clinton's daughters are newscasters for NBC.

In 1992-93 Leon Panetta supported Adamson's research and work implicating George Herbert Walker Bush in the JFK assassinataion. Panetta assisted Bill Clinton in his campaign against Bush Sr. Like George Bush Sr. Panetta was a CIA Director. Under the Richard Nixon administration as a R was in charge of the EEOC.

Before the Clinton administration he was responsible for generating a positive budget in Congress.

Note: During the 1990s the JFK Assassination Records Review Board Act our government has spent millions of dollars into the research of the assassination of our 35th President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. As a former Federal employee, on several occasions I have offered all of my research under the Whistleblowing Act to the Clinton administration without receiving a reply (covered in vol X of de Mohrenschildt Story). Adamson later learned and was the first to published that de Mohrenschildt's father-in-law was in charge of 250 CIA agents from 1950-53 more than ten years before JFK's demise (covered in vol. XI of de Mohrenschildt Story). Normally this book sells for $20.00. ISBN 1-892501-13-9.
