Regional Policy and Planning in Europe Paul Balchin, Ludek Sykora, Gregory Bull

Regional Policy and Planning in Europe explores the ways regional policy and planning systems across Europe have been influenced by:

- * economic and monetary union
- * the impending enlargement of the European Union
- * the devolution of administrative power from central government to regional authorities
- * the increased importance of environmental and urban issues.

Presenting a comprehensive overview of the economic basis of integration, this book examines the evolution of various systems of government, planning and forms of devolution.
