Bazaar Bizarre: Not Your Granny's Crafts! Greg Der Ananian

The desire to stand out with quirky, handmade, one-of-a-kind fashion has created a huge new crowd of hip young crafters hungry for ideas. In Bazaar Bizarre, Greg Der Ananian, founder of the bicoastal craft fair of the same name, combines a variety of how-to projects from radical crafters on his bazaar circuit. Speaking to everyone from alternates to hipster thirtysomethings with an irreverent retro-chic attitude, this book is for those looking to put an edge on the things that grandma used to make. Bazaar Bizarre offers smart, subversive inspiration unavailable from traditional crafting books and patterns, appealing not only to the nostalgia for folk expression of previous generations, but also to the popular DIY attitude of the young and stylish. From silk painting to quilting and bookbinding, projects such as Anarchy Soap and Vinyl Record Cuffs teach basic skills of popular crafts and offer tips on how to creatively customize with thrift store purchases. Readers will love Der Ananian's sardonic commentary, "Craftoids," about the history of crafting, punk-rock crosswords, funky finger-food recipes, and musical play lists.

Keith Vanwagoner:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Bazaar Bizarre: Not Your Granny's Crafts! can make you sense more interested to read.
