Citizenship in Modern Politics (Chinese Edition) xiao bin guo zhong hua guo tai hui

Citizenship is the bridge connecting individuals with politics; modern politics is based on the establishment of modern citizenship. According to this theory, the book focuses on modern political concepts and citizenship theory in the first part. It tries to clarify its concept and connotation in modern political context, historical mission, and the latest trends. National identity is a fundamental element in citizenship, but it is often mixed with nationalism in national states, producing various complicated relations. Thus the second part of the book discusses nationalism and citizens national identity. In terms of the rise and orientation of nationalism, Giddens theory is quite enlightening.
