If you like material from Pay Day the Author/Julian Hill then this is right up your alley. Especially for the music industry's SONGWRITERS and PRODUCERS. It's all been converted to poetic flow but keep in mind that these are real songs for sale. This is the second volume of a 2-piece set. Make sure you pick up both volumes. Overall there were at least 10 projects/music albums created during this time period of Pay Day the Author's life after he relocated from the Washington, DC area to Greater Atlanta for the second time. You'll find many of the pieces put you at ease. It was very easy to write music after Mr. Hill came out of a depression and at that time being diagnosed with bipolar disorder later schizoaffective disorder. As he looks back now at this collection he realizes that his writing was one of the things other than God keeping him clothed in his right mind and being able to bounce back.
