(Re)capturing the conversation. A book about hearing loss and communication Berth Danermark

In this book the author illustrates how hearing loss affects our ability to converse and what can be done to get the conversation flowing again. The task of changing the manner of conversing so that everyone is involved requires solidarity and commitment from loved ones. Such joint work brings satisfaction and joy, even though it can sometimes be stressful and laborious. Changes toward improving the conversational situation for people with hearing loss are also improvements that can benefit everyone involved!
