Introduction: Whether you build the projects in this book for your own amusement or give them away to family and friends, the gratification of working with wood will be all yours. As you page through the 23 projects in this new volume, Toys & Accessories, published exclusively for Members of the Handyman Club of America, you'll find a broad assortment of both toys and keepsakes to suit a variety of tastes and woodworking skill levels. If a challenge is what you're after, we've provided some specialized techniques to try, like applying veneer, steam-bending, and cutting round tenons. Have you ever built a tambour door or used your drill like a lathe/ Here's your chance. There are plenty of simpler projects here as well, if you'd like to spend some time in the shop building with a youngster you know. Each project is presented with complete cutting and shopping lists, detailed drawings, beautiful color photographs of the project as it's being built and straightforward step-by-step instructions. Time to buy some lumber and get started!
